KOPPISCH IN FRONT FROM GUN TO TAPE

Sets Fast Pace and Wins Ovation From Big Crowd at St. Antony Games.

RUNS DISTANCE IN 51 1-5

Stevenson of Princeton Second, Cutbill Third and Leslie Fourth.

Walter Koppisch of Columbia University won the Suburban Quarter, the feature event at the Knights of St.

Big Crowd Seex Contest.

Each of fhese champions has a host of admirers and thousands of them gathered at the armory last night to "root" for their favorite. The big armory was crowded and both before, during and after the race each and every one of the contestants received salvos of applause. For the contest each of the noted athletes had been in training several weeks and each went to the starter in prime condition. And each was confident he would be returned the victor of the $500 Tiffany trophy which goes to the winner. As the quintet went to their marks it could be seen that all were a triffe nervous except Leslie, the veteran of a thousand races. But the starter was patient with all and after several warnings sent them away in a perfect line.

For a few yards during the first rush for positions it was impossible to tell which was in front. Then Koppisch, bearing the big C of his college, poked his chest in front, and then in a few more strides was out in front, free and clear of his field. At his heels ran Stevenson, with O'Brien third, Leslie fourth and Cutbill bringing up the rear. A full lap at a terrific pace found no change in the positions. Then started the final lap and a general spurt by all. Koppisch had plenty of speed in reserve and despite desperate challenges by Stevenson, Leslie and Cutbill he retained his lead to the end to win well in hand. Stevenson was an easy second. Leslie displayed a great burs; of speed in the field burget of speed in the field through it is bleak and cold outside the building inside there are boats, engines, salls, flags and everything to remind one that spring is coming and hand. Stevenson was an easy second.

Leslie displayed a great burst of speed in the final hundred yards but faltered fifty yards from home and Cuttonil, who was running fastest at the laway.

THAT'S WHY.

But just is strangely elever It may be that he has the kick. And science none whatever:

It may be he's a man who'll feel Or that he has a jaw of steet A hammer couldn't mangle:

You really never do know why It is you like the blighter. But to yourself you can't deny Whate'er his merits or his flaws

He brings you keen delight And is your favorite because You like to see him fight.

KRUEGER RELEASED, SCHUPP IS SIGNED

Reds Get Catcher and Send Him to Hoosiers-Hoyt

By DANIEL.

Signs Contract.

Ernle Krueger no longer is with the Dodgers. He has passed out of the major leagues. Official announcement that the catcher had been released to Cincinnati and then to Indianapolis, as vell as the information that Ferdie well as the information that Ferdie Schupp, the left hander, had sent in his signed contract, came from Charley Ebbets yesterday. The Squire of Flatbush added that he had signed a young right-hander from Buffalo by the name of Iwen W. Dell, who is not to be confused with the Dell who was a Brooklyn fling r some years back.

The information about Krueger is not exactly news, for we stated some time ago that he had been sent to the Reds. At that time the supposition was that Krueger would land with San Francisco in company with Pete Kilduff. However.

in company with Pete Kilduff. However, it appears that Indianapolis had a prior claim on a catcher from Cincinnati as part of the deal which made Fritz Coumbe, the right hander, a member of the Moran outfit last season. The supposition also was that Kilduff and Krueger had been traded for Sam Crane, but Ebbets yeaterday said that the buckstop had been sold to the Reds. It will be recollected that Krueger, like Schupp, at one time was with the Giants.

Schupp, who came to Brooklyn from the Cardinals in 1921 in a trade for Jeff Pfeffer, was not quite the howling success Robbis hoped he would be at Ebbets Field. Still Ferdie's arm behaved pretty well, and left handers of any ability at all are mighty scarce in the big show. in company with Pete Kilduff. Howeve George Burns—good old George who sed to be a Giant but now is a Red— esterday signed a two year contract (ith Cincinnati. That means that wanted, and then Garry handed the outfielder the papers so sign. It took no longer than that, and later Burns declared that he had been treated "fine and white." He paid a short visit to the offices of the Giants, and seemed not one whit downcast because he was headed for the Reds training camp at Mineral Wells. Tex., instead of the Giants' bailiwick at San Antonio. "The ideal bailplayer," said Col. Husto', of him last evening—and the Colonel was right. Burns, who looks fine and fit, said that he did not have to report at Mineral Wells until March 5. The Reds are making a later start than usual. Burns, Jake Daubert and Pat Moran will constitute a board of strategy to mold the style of the Reds this year. style of the Reds this year

Overwhelmed by the concerted attack the Yankee business manager did not give a direct answer at first, which led to the hasty conclusion that the pitcher was a holdout sure enough. A little later Barrow announced positively that have been signed and overwere.

Boxing Bouts To-night

Many friends are inquiring when we will have an Overcoat Sale.

To which we may reply like the boy eating the apple, "There ain't gonna be no core."

Bargain sales with us are never "regular" occurrences. Manufacturing all the clothing we offer, we try our best to scale production to meet demand.

Sometimes, being human and fallible, we are overoptimistic and sometimes we have to over-produce in order to keep our shops busy all the year round, instead of the intensive seasonal production customary in our trade.

Regular employment and a steady flow of work make contented helpers and better work, besides reducing unit costs. If we end a season with a surplus, we face the music as good merchants shouldmake slashing reductions and get rid of the surplusgrateful if we get back something like raw cost.

Our old friends understand, and though quantities are sometimes substantial, as with the 12,000 suits we recently offered. the response has always been most generous and way is made for the new stock which is always coming along. Last year, the first time in six years, we had an Overcoat Sale. This year we're highly gratified with the fact that we've sold at regular prices about 50% Columbia by 499 to 491

Later Barrow announced positive; that been signed and everybody went away happy. It had been indicated several days ago that the indicated several days ago that the Hoyt accompanied by his bride will leave for Hot Springs to-morrow night.

Later Barrow announced positive; that been more Winter over Coats that the last Winter's regular business. So it's kept us very busy taking care of current needs, and although we have, as we always must. an ample stock to take care of late season demands. we have no surplus of over> coats to sacrifice. The appreciation of our regular values which our friends have shown through this season of widespread bargain advertising has been most encouraging, as renewed evidence that substantial men approve time-tried methods of merchandising and Dual Swimming Meet time-honored standards of quality and value.
